| 5 | 83(b) Election form – Copy 2, IRS Acknowledgement Copy |

STEP 1 CONSIDER FILING YOUR 83(B) ELECTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

You may want to file your 83(b) election well in advance of the 30-day deadline mentioned above. You'll want to have enough time to send another 83(b) election if your first election is lost or destroyed in transit before it reaches the IRS.

If you're too busy to file your 83(b) election right now, consider using Clerky's managed 83(b) election add-on (see Step 3 for details).

STEP 2 REVIEW A COPY OF YOUR 83(B) ELECTION FORM

If you need to make any corrections or additions, be sure to make them to both copies of your 83(b) election form. You can leave the taxpayer ID for yourself and your spouse (if applicable) blank for now. You'll have an opportunity to provide that in subsequent steps.

If you're not a US taxpayer, please read https://cler.ky/83b-elections-for-non-us-taxpayers.

STEP 3 CHOOSE HOW TO FILE YOUR 83(B) ELECTION

You can use Clerky's managed 83(b) election add-on to file your 83(b) election without having to print anything or go to the post office. To proceed, please visit https://cler.ky/managed-83b-elections.

Please note that the add-on is only available until 15 calendar days after March 10, 2026. If you decide to use the add-on, please consider proceeding well in advance of the 15-day deadline so that you'll have time to send another election if your first is lost or destroyed in transit before it reaches the IRS.

If you prefer not to use Clerky's managed 83(b) election add-on, you can follow the additional instructions on the next page to file your 83(b) election on your own.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR SELF-FILING

You can ignore this page if you're using Clerky's managed 83(b) election add-on.

1. Where indicated, for both Copy 1 and Copy 2 of the signed 83(b) election form:

   X Insert the taxpayer ID number for the taxpayer (and spouse, if applicable)

   If you or your spouse don't have a SSN or ITIN, please see https://cler.ky/83b-elections-for-non-us-taxpayers.

2. Include the following in a single envelope:

   - IRS Transmittal Letter
   - Copy 1 and Copy 2 of the signed 83(b) election form

3. Clip a self-addressed, postage-paid envelope to Copy 2 for the IRS to date-stamp and return. Consider ensuring the envelope has postage and labeling for Priority Mail with Certified Mail service.

   A date-stamped copy is not required and the IRS is inconsistent about returning it. It is nevertheless recommended to request it for enhanced company and taxpayer records.

4. Send by USPS Certified Mail with Return Receipt to the IRS mailing address where you would file your annual income tax return by paper. Consider using Priority Mail with the Certified Mail service instead of First-Class Mail.

   Make sure to obtain a postmark on the certified mail receipt (PS Form 3800) from your USPS office.

   For mailing addresses, see https://www.irs.gov/uac/where-to-file-paper-tax-returns-with-or-without-a-payment.

   If you must use a private delivery service, check IRS requirements and be sure to obtain written proof of the mailing date that complies with IRS rules. See http://www.irs.gov/uac/Private-Delivery-Services-PDS.

5. Monitor the tracking of your 83(b) election so you can send another 83(b) election if your first is lost or destroyed in transit before reaching the IRS.

6. Keep the following in the company and taxpayer records:

   - A copy of the USPS Certified Mail Receipt with the postmark
   - A copy of the tracking history for the delivery to the IRS
   - The USPS Return Receipt, if returned
   - The date-stamped copy from the IRS, if returned
   - A copy of the USPS Certified Mail Receipt for the file-stamped copy
   - If available, a copy of the tracking history for the file-stamped copy
   - A copy of this document
